GSI Group, LLC Announces New Chairman to the Board of Directors

Assumption, IL — June 3, 2010 — Bill Camp has been named successor of Bill Branch as Chairman of the GSI Group, LLC Board of Directors. Branch has served as Chairman since 2005 and will continue to serve as a member of the Board of Directors. During his successful term Branch served as an integral leader in substantial program launches for global manufacturing company.

The new Director, Bill Camp, joined GSI Group's Board in early 2009 with 30 plus years experience in the agriculture products industry. Camp worked at Archer Daniels Midland Company (NYSE: ADM), an agricultural processing company with more than 230 plants worldwide and with its global headquarters in Decatur, Illinois, in a variety of management positions including: Executive Vice President – Global Manufacturing, Grain Handling and Transportation Operations; Executive Vice President – Asia Strategy; and Senior Vice President – Global Oilseeds, Cocoa and Wheat Milling. Camp's responsibilities also included oversight of ADM's Brazil operations, as well as service on ADM's Strategic Planning Committee. Prior to joining ADM, Camp was with A.E. Staley Manufacturing Company (now Tate & Lyle).

In addition to his membership on the GSI Group Board of Directors, Camp also serves on the Board of Directors of Chiquita Brands International, Inc. (NYSE: CQB) a distributor and marketer of food products including pineapples, avocados, snacks, salads and bananas. He also serves on the Boards of Directors of Tate & Lyle (LSE: TATE), which manufactures SPLEND®, industrial and food starches and many other products from corn and sugar, and Oasis Foods Company.
